

Fabio Bassan, Carlo D. Mottura

From Saviour to Guarantor. EU Member States' Economic Intervention During the Financial Crisis

Contents

List of Figures

List of Tables

Preface

List of Abbreviation

Part I The EU's Institutional Action

1 The EU Action to Face the Crisis

1.1 EU's actions in support of the Member States' public debt

1.2 EU's actions in support of the banking system

1.3 Eurostat public contingent liabilities

1.4 Differences between EU and US actions

2 State Guarantees and State Aid

Part II The Financial Valuation of a Guarantee Contract

3 The Defaultable Guarantee Contract

3.1 The guarantee contract and credit derivatives market

3.2 The relevant issues

4 Valuation under a Standard Model

Part III A The State Guarantees in the EU: State Guarantees for the Safeguard of the Euro

5 Guarantees in Favour of the ESM

5.1 The financial scheme

5.2 Main features of the guarantees

6 Effects of the Guarantees

6.1 Valuation and 'model risk'

6.2 The lack of effective sanctioning instruments

6.3 Different sovereignties for Eurozone Member States

6.4 The ECB and the lever of Archimedes

Part III B The State Guarantees in the EU: The State Guarantees for the Stability of the Banking System

7 The State Guarantees to Cover Bank Debt

7.1 The financial scheme

7.2 Main features of the guarantees

8 Effects of the Guarantees

8.1 Legal guarantee fee and market price

8.2 Moral hazard effects

8.3 Distortions in banking competition

8.4 Member State guarantees and EU coordination

Part IV Innovation and Crisis-Fighting Measures in the EU

9. The Instruments That Triggered the Crisis in 2007-2008

9.1 The 'path' of risk: from private individuals to banks

9.2 The 'path' of risk: from banks to markets

9.3 The 'path' of risk: from markets to States

9.4 Cultural sustainability of innovation in anti-crisis public finance

10 The ECB's Unconventional Measures Facing the Challenge of Markets and National Courts

10.1 Characteristics of the main unconventional measures

10.2 The scope of the measures as outlined by the ECB and by the case law

10.3 Application of the constraints set by the BVerfG for OMTs to other unconventional measures

Conclusions

Notes

Bibliography

Index