Informazioni sul volume

This book celebrates the work and scholarship of Professor GIORGIO BERNINI, Honorary President of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA), who taught European Union Law, International Trade Law, Comparative Contract Law, holding the chair of Arbitration and International Commercial Law at the University of Bologna for almost 30 years. A very successful international lawyer, he was the Italian Minister of Foreign Trade and a Member of the Italian Antitrust Authority. Professor Bernini has built a long career in the study and practice of arbitration with a record of 450 cases.

This book is divided into an introduction and two parts, to highlight many of Professor Bernini's contributions to the Law.

In a special introductory section of the book, entitled ‘portraits of a pioneer’, some authors offer specific references to some of his many activities in the field: from the ICC Institute of World Business Law to the International Council for Commercial Arbitration, from the Italian Arbitration Association to his professional life as an international lawyer. Then, in the first part of the book, essays on Contract Law and International Trade Law have been collected. The second part is dedicated to Arbitration in its plural dimensions: domestic, international, commercial and investment Law.

The contributors of the book possess the highest academic credentials and proven experience in the field: YVES DERAINS, LISE BOSMAN, MARIA BEATRICE DELI, ANTONIO FRATICELLI, GUIDO ALPA, ALFONSO-LUIS CALVO CARAVACA, JAVIER CARRASCOSA GONZÁLEZ, ROBERTO CECCON, GABRIELE CRESPI REGHIZZI, ABDEL HAMID EL AHDAB, H.
